

School District of University City
2009 BACK-TO-SCHOOL RALLY

The School District of University City is spearheading our third annual "Back-To-School Rally" for the University City community on Saturday, August 1, 2009 from 9 a.m. to noon at McNair Campus, 8136 Groby Road, University City, MO 63130. The purpose of the Rally is to bring the community together to foster the District's dedication to educational excellence and encourage continual life-long learning. Activities are being planned to support student enrollment in the District and include hands-on, educational projects and demonstrations with student enrollment applications and support; wellness and health clinics; information from local community organizations, clubs and public services along with other fair-styled activities.

Sign-up response needed by Wednesday, July 22.
