Dear U. City Schools Families:

We've had numerous requests for student school supply lists. As we start the region's Sales Tax-Free weekend, I wanted to provide you with our newly updated list so you don't miss out on the savings.

This is a suggested list of items your child might need. Please remember that we are here for all of our families. If purchasing any of these supplies is a hardship for you, the District is able to assist. More information on how we can help will be forthcoming.

Early next week, you will receive more information regarding completing the registration process, teacher assignments, schedules, and upcoming events to celebrate the start of the school year.

My next Zoom with the Superintendent is this Monday, August 10 at 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Please register here to join me if you have any questions or just need a quick check-in regarding the start of the school year.

Again, the supply list (www.ucityschools.org/SchoolSupplies2020) is just a suggested list for those planning to take advantage of the tax-free weekend. I wish you and your loved ones a great weekend.

In Service of Our Children,

Sharonica Hardin-Bartley, PhD, PHR
Superintendent
