Dear U. City Schools Families:

The Office of Communications is excited to announce that Superintendent Sharonica Hardin-Bartley will be the recipient of the 2020 Stellar Performer in Education Award from the St. Louis American Foundation.

She will be recognized during The Foundation's virtual award ceremony on Saturday, Oct. 17 starting at 7 p.m. The gala can be viewed on stlamerican.com, the St. Louis American's Facebook page and YouTube channel. For additional details on how to participate, visit givebutter.com/SaluteEdu.

You can read the wonderful article on our "Disruptor in chief" in today's St. Louis American. The District's press release can be found here.

In the spirit of the award, please remember to vote in the upcoming election. Every vote counts. Keep an eye out for upcoming school and District voter registration drives.

Additionally, the U.S. Census closes soon. Your count in the Census helps to direct federal funding to our region and our community. To fill out the Census, click here.

Also, tomorrow evening, Friday, Sept. 25, join us for a wonderful line-up of music and more during Pershing's Jazz and More virtual event. The show starts at 5 p.m. and includes African drumming by Dhati Kennedy; Jazz piano by Peter Martin, a U. City alum and internationally recognized Jazz pianist; and the band Mariachi Nuevo Azteca, which will perform in honor of Hispanic Heritage Month.
