

2000 Hall of Fame Inductee

Michael A. Kahn

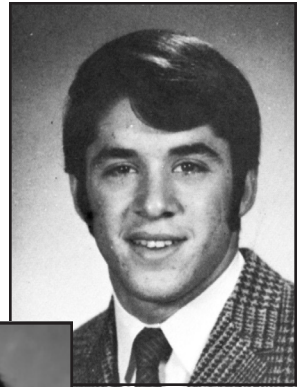

Class of 1970

Michael Kahn graduated with honors from both Northwestern University and Harvard Law School. The former public school teacher is now a trial attorney with Stinson, Mag & Fizzell, a leading Midwest law firm. He concentrates his practice in the areas of intellectual property, commercial litigation, and media law and has represented many individuals and companies in cases connected to libel, copyright infringement, trademark, and First Amendment disputes. Kahn also served as special counsel to the Examiner in the largest bankruptcy proceeding in St. Louis.

His broad experiences have led to a second career as a successful author of suspense novels, several of which have been praised by Publisher's Weekly, Orlando Sentinel Tribune and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Kahn lives in St. Louis with his wife, Margi, and their five children.

Michael A.
Kahn

Class of 1970