

2000 Hall of Fame Inductee

Carolyn Werner Losos

Class of 1950

Carolyn Werner Losos was employed as a teacher and has since, dedicated her life to educating and training people from a variety of industries. Over the course of her career, and in her capacity as executive director for the Leadership Center of Greater St. Louis, she has had the opportunity to help develop more than 1,000 of the area's top leaders who went on to support major organizations and companies throughout St. Louis.

Carolyn
Werner
Losos

Class of 1950

Losos devotes time and talent to heartfelt causes and is said to have perfected the art of “servant leadership.” Losos is the senior consultant to FOCUS St. Louis and a member of the executive committee of the Missouri Botanical Garden. She is a founding member of the vice-president of the National Board of Parents As Teachers organization and president of the board of the Missouri Women’s Forum.

Losos is the recipient of many awards and honors including the International Women’s Forum’s “Women Who Make a Difference Award,” the St. Louis Forum’s Trailblazer Award, the Girl Scout Council of Greater St. Louis’ “Women of Distinction Award,” and the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. State Celebration Commission’s Distinguished Community Service Award.