

2000 Hall of Fame Inductee

Eric P. Mink

Class of 1965

Eric Mink graduated from George Washington University in Washington D.C., with a bachelor of arts degree in English literature. A former television critic

for the St. Louis

Post-Dispatch,

Mink, for the past

seven years, has served as a reporter

for the New York

Daily News. Over

the course of his

22-year career

in journalism,

Mink has written

more than 4,000

columns, critiques,

analyses, and stories on television news, entertainment and sports programming, industry trends and breaking events.

His work has been distributed to newspapers nationally and internationally and includes freelance articles, which have appeared in the Atlantic Monthly, Washington Journalism

Review, and TV Guide. Since 1990, Mink has served as one of seven jurors for the prestigious Alfred I Dupont-Columbia University Awards for Television and Radio Journalism administered by Columbia's Graduate School of Journalism.

He was also master of ceremonies for the 1999 University

City High School Celebration of the Century Hall of Fame

Induction.

Eric P.
Mink

Class of 1965