

2000 Hall of Fame Inductee

Donald Wolff

Class of 1955

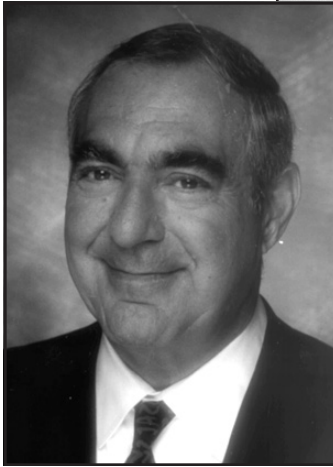

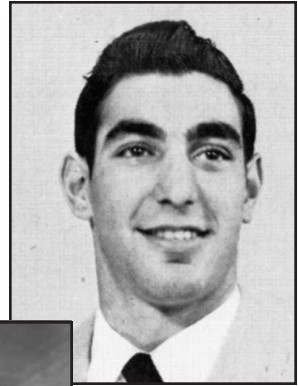

Donald Wolff earned both a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration and a juris doctorate from the University of Missouri – Columbia.

He has served as assistant judge advocate for the United States Army in Germany and chief trial assistant for the St. Louis Prosecuting Attorney's office. Currently, he is the municipal judge for the City of Creve Coeur.

Wolff continues to distinguish himself through his work as a criminal attorney in the law offices of Wolff and D'Agrosa in Clayton. He has been a long-time advocate for the preservation of First Amendment civil rights, primarily in the defense of criminal cases but also in his work as legal counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union and for Legal Advocates of Abused Women. He continues to serve his profession and community through leadership roles in the St. Louis County Bar Association, the Lawyers Association, Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Greater St. Louis, Boys and Girls Town of Missouri, and the Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis. Wolff is currently a member of the Board of Regents at Harris Stowe State College.

In what has become his second career, Wolff can be heard on KMOX on Saturday mornings hosting a six-hour jazz show. For the past 15 years, he has hosted radio programs designed to keep this original American art form alive for people of all generations.

Donald Wolff

Class of 1955